"Correo marítimo ordinario y metódico establecido en el siglo XVIII entre España y las Indias Occidentales"
("Ordinary and Methodical Maritime Posts Established in the 18th Century Between Spain and the West Indies")
Madrid, Spain: Revista de Correos, Yr.22, No.850, 25 Sep 1887, pp.1039-1042 (4), Span.

This article consists of three parts: Part I is a brief commentary on the lack of published information about the Spanish maritime mail service with the Indies. Part II reproduces the Royal Order issued by King Carlos III of Spain on 6 August 1764 establishing regular maritime mail service between Spain and the West Indies. Part III reproduces the Royal Instruction of 24 August 1764 for the operation of this service between the port of La Coruña in northern Spain and the Indies. The article is followed by a brief commentary by the editor of the journal reflecting on the deficiencies of the maritime mail service, citing a subsequent Royal Order that tried to correct those deficiencies, and ending with some philosophical musings on the impact of the Spanish maritime mail service in the development of the Americas (see <VELA8709>).

<FC> El Filatelista Cubano (The Cuban Philatelist)

Miami, Florida: Quarterly journal of the Círculo Filatélico Cubano de Miami (The Cuban Philatelic Circle of Miami); edited by Agustín J. Cantens, Jr., the Circle's founder. Four issues (Vol.I: Jul, Sep, Dec 1971 and Mar 1972) were published entirely in Spanish under the title El Filatelista Cubano. Starting with the third issue of Dec 1971, a parallel publication, The Cuban Philatelist, Vol.I, No.1, also dated Dec 1971, started to be published as the "English edition of El Filatelista Cubano" translating most, but not exactly all its content into English. These parallel editions only lasted for two issues, the second being issue No. 4, of El Filatelista Cubano, dated March 1972, that was paralleled in English by The Cuban Philatelist, Vol.I, Nos.2 & 3, also dated March 1972. Thereafter, El Filatelista Cubano ceased publication and The Cuban Philatelist became a bi-lingual journal starting with Vol.II, Issue No.1, dated July 1972, indicating under its title that it was the "Official Organ of the Cuban Philatelic Club, Inc." when the former Círculo Filatélico de Miami was incorporated and renamed The Cuban Philatelic Club, Inc. of America. The four published issues of El Filatelista Cubano were:

Vol.I, No.1, Jul 1971, 6 pp.

Vol.I, No.3, Dec 1971, 14 pp.

Vol.I, No.2, Sep 1971, 10 pp.

Vol.I, No.4, Mar 1972, 12 pp.

(Issues of The Cuban Philatelist are listed under CP in this bibliography).

Issue No.3 of Yr.23 was not published--see note in Issue No.1, Yr.24, p.24.

With Issue No.1 of Yr.24 the traditional format of the publication was abandoned in favor of a larger page size. The page size changed from 6x9 in. to 7.25x10.5 in. for the next four issues.

Yr.24, No.1, Jan-Apr 1989; No.2, May-Aug 1989; No.3, Sep-Dec 1989;
Yr.25, No.1, Jan-Jun 1990 (last issue published until 1995);

After 1990, the continuous year date is dropped. Only two issues are published between 1990 and 2002 during the tough economic times after the fall of the Soviet Union and its cessation of economic support to Cuba. The traditional format of the publication is abandoned in favor of a larger page size.

Issue No.1, Yr.1995, (no month date), 52 pages, size 7.3x10.5 in. (18.5x26.7 cm.);
Issue No.1, Jan-Apr 1998, 52 pages, size 8.5x11.2 inches (21.5x28.5 cm).

A new size format and numbering system starts to be used after another lapse in publication from 1998 to 2002. The size of the next six issues is approximately 5.75 x 8.25 in. (15 by 21 cm.).

Issue No.1, Yr.2002 (no month date), 16 pp. This issue is dated September-December 2001 in a footer on p.2.

Issue No.2, Yr. 2002 (no month date), 16 pp. This issue is dated September-December 2002 in a footer on p.2.

Issue No.2 in its first couple of pages makes reference to the journal's sporadic publication after 1998 due to the financial difficulties of the times in the island.

Issue No.1, Yr.2003, 16 pp. This issue is labeled Yr.2 in a footer on p.2.

Issue No.4, undated (probably early 2004 from content) 16 pp. This issue indicates that this is the fourth issue in the new smaller format that started being used with Issue No.1 of 2002—this is in spite of the fact that the Yr.2003 issue was labeled Issue No.1 rather than No.3.

Issue No.5, Year 2004, 16 pp.

Issue No.6, Year 2006, 16 pp.

This piece just illustrates how Cuban postal markings evolved from the pre-philatelic stampless period to the early stamp period by describing the postal markings on four covers. The markings illustrated are a Matanzas straightline cancel on a cover to Habana, a Jibara Baeza cds on an official mail cover to Holguín, a Trinidad straightline cancel tying a first issue stamp to a cover addressed to Habana, and a Habana local mail cover with a Y 1/4 stamp tied by a Habana cds. There is not much substance to the piece--maily a space filler .

Announcement of the publication by Ignacio A. Ortiz Bello, Cuban philatelist, dealer, and philatelic writer, of a stamp album for Cuban stamps of the Republic of Cuba from its inception on 20 May 1902 until 31 December 1958, organized in chronological order and beautifully illustrated with images of the stamps. The article indicates that the album is intended to promote Cuban philately, especially among the youth, and is being offered at the extremely reasonable price of $10. The article also provides brief biographical notes on Mr. Ortiz Bello and his philatelic career, including his founding of the “Club Cubano de Coleccionistas” (“Cuban Club for Collectors”).

Reseña Histórico-Descriptiva de los Sellos de Correo de España
(Historic-Descriptive Review of the Postage Stamps of Spain)

Madrid: Imprenta Central a cargo de Víctor Saiz, Calle de la Colegiata, Número 6, 28 Mar 1881, 253 pp., ill.

Excellent compendium of postal regulations and legislation for the period 1850-1878, including a description of the postal species issued in support of them. Spanish ultramarine possessions are covered. The following sections are listed in the index: 1) stamps for the kingdom and foreign countries, 2) postcards, 3) official franchise, 4) military franchise, 5) private franchises, 6) newspaper stamps, 7) stamps for Cuba, Puerto Rico, Philippines, and Fernando Póo, and 8) overseas postcards. The sections pertaining directly to Cuba are on pages 215 to 225 on the stamps of the Spanish Antilles issued for use in both Cuba and Puerto Rico, pages 225 to 227 on the stamps issued specifically for Cuba from 1877 to 1881, and pages 249 to 250 on the postcards for use in Cuba and Puerto Rico. Additionally on pages 239 and 244 there are references to the use of the Spanish Antilles issues of 1856 and 1870 used in the Philippines. Also of special interest to Cuban philatelists for historical background and comparison purposes are pages 135 to 140 in the Spanish section of the book that covers the "Habilitado por la Nación" overprints that were used in Spain and that were also sent to Cuba, Puerto Rico, and the Philippines. Finally, it is important to note that many of the Spanish postal regulations and legislation also applied to the Spanish ultramarine possessions and need to be taken into consideration by the Cuban philatelist. A case in point is the royal decree of 15 February 1856 making the prepayment of all correspondence obligatory as of 1 January 1857 for all overseas possessions which is fully quoted on pages 49-51. Thus the entire book merits careful review by those interested in the history of Spanish Cuba philately.

It was not until issue No.15 of April-June 1977 that the bulletin started to be published more regularly on a quarterly basis with more extensive and informative content and consistent number of pages (usually 8 to 10 with some issues running into 12, 14, or

"Duality of a U.S. possessions postal card"

Scott Stamp Monthly, June 1989, p.14, ill.

The article documents the accepted use of the same U.S. possessions postal card, Cuba Scott UX1, in the Republic of Cuba and in the U.S. in 1903 after the U.S. occupation of Cuba ended in 1902 (then two different countries and two different postal administrations). One postcard was sent from Havana to Switzerland, postmarked July 9, 1903, with a Cuba 1c. stamp (Scott 227) added to pay the 2c. international postcard rate; the other one was posted from Yonkers, New York, to Turkey on March 4, 1903, with a U.S. 1c. stamp (Scott 300) also added to pay the 2c. international postcard rate.
